THE ELECTION IN INDIANA. Governor Morton, of Indiana, telegraphs as

"Indianapolis, Oct. 12-The Union State ticket is elected by not less than ten thousand, and probably by twenty thousand majority. We gain the 11th Congressional District, and very probably the 3d, 4th and 10th districts. There are large gains throughout the State on the vote of 1860. Hopes are entertained that we will have both branches of the Legislature."

The Expedition to Abingdon, Va.

MOUNT STERLING, Oct. 13 .- The troops have arrived here from the salt works near Abingdon, Va. The army was safely withdrawn from the battle field by Brigadier General Hobson, the command having been turned over to him by his superior. The corps fought bravely, but suffered greatly during the march to this place. There was constant fighting with our rear guard during the first three days of the retreat. Lieutenant Colonel Mason, 11th Michigan Cavalry, was killed in a skirmish on Big Shanty Mountain.

Highly Important Arrests.

A GANG OF COUNTERPEITERS CAPTURED BY ORDER OF COL. BAKER.

Within the past few months, a vast number of fifty cent stamps have been put in circulation, which were good copies of the genuine. In order to discover the gang engaged in this netarious business, by which thousands, principally of the poorer classes, have been victimized, Col. Baker, chief of the National Detective Police at Washington, set about to give the criminals a local habitation and a name, and eventually a place in the State prison. The zeal of his own force rendered them so well known among thieves in general that he was led to select Messrs. James A. McDevitt and John A. W. Clarvoe, of Saperintendent Webb's corps of detectives in Washington; and these young officers soon proved themselves equal to the important and difficult task set before them. Acting under the instructions of Col. Baker, they soon discovered that an immense number of bogus fifty cent stamps were in circulation in the State of New Jersey, and further search showed that they were offered and passed in large numbers along the line of the Erie railroad. After working up the case, they traced the principal issue of the notes to Patterson, N. J., and as they were about proceeding to hunt up the counterfeiters, they became frightened, and removed the press and plates to Port Jarvis.

The officers then repaired to Port Jervis, and after further efforts, they found that the notes were printed in the house of A. C. Marvin, a brakeman on the Erie road, On entering the rooms of Marvin they discovered several of the parties engaged in printing the notes on a small press, and in placing bronze on them. The officers then arrested a man named Robinson, who confessed that he had engraved the plates. He stated that he commenced the work a day after he had been released from Trenton jail, where he had served a term for counterfeiting.

In the room there was a man named Alexander, who had come from the West to buy the first lot of notes, engaged in learning the art of printing them, so as to be able, perhaps, to start a similar establishment "on his own hook," in Kalamazco, Michigan, where he hails from. Two women, named Jennie Marvin and Fannie Storme, both sisters of Marvin, were occupied in brushing bronze on the notes after Robinson had printed them. All the parties were arrested and are now in custody, with the exception of Alexander, who succeeded in pro-

The plates, presses, bronze, bank paper, and notes, were then captured by the officers, who found $40,000 of the counterfeit currency in fifty-cent stamps, rolled up in bundles, in the

The plates are accurately executed. One is on steel and the other on copper-the latter being the indersement of the fifty-cent stamp. The previous issues of counterfeit fifty-cent stamps were detected—the indorsement being printed from a wood-cut-but there is no such means to detect this last issue. It is probable that an immense number of them are now freely taken in change. Col. Baker and Messrs. McDevitt and Clarvoe deserve the thanks of the country for these important arrests, which cannot fail to check the counterfeit business in general .- N. Y. Express.

THE PROPER POLICY -It is understood that Gen Auger, commanding the defenses south of the Potomac, in view of the outrageous conduct of guerrillas in tearing up the rails on the Manassas Gap railroad, by which the loss of life occurred a few days ago among them the superintendent, McCrickett will probably order a register of all the disloyal people of Fairfax and Alexandria counties, for the purpose of having a daily detail to accompany the trains, to be stationed on prominent parts of the engine and cars. This was done by Gen. Washburne in the West to protect injuries, and it proved effective .- Alex. Journal, 13th.

FINANCIAL.-The New York Commercial Advertiser of vesterday evening says:

The stock market opened this morning with increased spirit and activity. The "buil" party showed considerable strength and bid for large amount of stocks. At the first board there was a general advance as the call progressed until near the close, when the bidding drooped and the prices were lower. The unexpected interest shows in the new loan gave a stimulus to Governments, and Sixes of 1831 advanced %, and Certificates %, closing at 94%. State stocks were quiet but firm.

The money market continues steady. There is rather more demand from stock brokers, which is readily met at 7 per cent. The indications, yesterday and this morning.

favor the prospect of a large bid for the new Five-twenty loan. The bids at the Treasury Office, up to the last evening, amounted to $13,000,000, and at noon to-day had been incaeased to $17,500,000. At the First National Bank bids have been recorded to the extent of $6,000,000; and other national banks have received large offers to be included in their respective bids, including, at the Central, $2,000,-000, and at the Ninth about $1,500,000. A prominent firm in Exchange Place has received bids to the amount of $10,000,000.

The Evening Post says: The bids for the new loan are coming in rapidly to-day, and there is now little doubt that their aggregate will exceed the forty millions offered for public competition. Success ful bidders will receive on their payments interest at 6 per cent in gold from the date of the receipt of the money.

ANOTHER GUERRILLA OUTRAGE ON THE MANASSAS RAILBOAD. Yesterday evening, a gang of Mosby's guerrillas, represented to be some four hundred strong, made an attack on an outer picket of the 2d D. C. regiment, stationed at White Plains, on the Manassas railroad.

The picket guard, consisting of eight men, under the command of Lieut. Jos. Smith, company H, fired upon the guerrillas, but were not able to successfully resist the overpowering numbers of the guerrilla gang, and they were captured with the exception of two men. Lieut. Smith was shot through the knee, and one man was badly wounded in the groin.

Lieut. S. was stripped of his clothes and robbed of $1,400, intrusted to his care by his men for safekeeping, and when the guerrillas retreated they ordered him to mount a horse and go with them, but he refused, saying that he was too badly wounded, and they might shoot him and do their worst. They then abandoned him, and moved rapidly away with their other prisoners, and he was rescued by a body of our men in pursuit of the guer-rillas, and taken to the hospital at Alexan-

A party of guerrillas, reported to belong to Kincheloe's gang, also committed similar outrages yesterday between Accotink and Burke's Station, killing, near the latter place, private Wm. B. Moore and another man belonging to the 6th Pennsylvania heavy artillery. The active measures now being taken will prevent any similar outrages on the road.

A REBEL CANINE DESPATCH CARRIER. An officer who came up from City Point today had with him an ugly looking specimen of the genus canine, which he guarded very carefully. The dog, it appears, was a great pet with both our own and the rebel pickets in front of Hancock's corps. The dog had been trained to carry messages between the pickets. A rebel paper would be placed in his mouth and he would scamper off to the Union lines, deliver up the paper and return with a Northern paper. He has been entrusted with packages of coffee and tobacco, and always deliv ered them promptly and safely.

The rebs, however, tried to make use of him for transmitting information from one portion of their lines to another, and the four-legged messenger have been caught with one of those messages, he was confiscated and brought

FROM CITY POINT The United States mail steamer Manhattan,

Captain Ryther, arrived here this afternoon from City Point. The delay in getting here was occasioned by a severe storm on the bay last night. An unusual quiet has prevailed in Grant's army for few days past. The pickets, however, keep up an occasional shooting. The election throughout the army was conducted very quietly, and the large majorities pleases the soldiers hugely.

REFUSING TO OBEY ORDERS Forty-seven quartermaster's employees, who refused to go to Virginia for the purpose of assisting in clearing the Manassas Gap Railroad of timber, when ordered to do so were arrested last night and committed to the Central

Guard-house. REBEL DESERTERS. Sixteen rebel deserters of Virginia, Tennes see and North Carolina regiments, arrived here yesterday evening from Gen. Butler's department. Col. Ingraham released them upon taking the oath of allegiance.

THE NEW NATIONAL LOAN .- To-day at 12 o'clock, the work of opening the bids for the new national loan was commenced by Assist. ant Secretary Harrington, in his room in the Treasury Building, in the presence of a large number of gentlemen. The bids are very numerous, and it will be impossible to open and record them all to-day. Some of the amounts bid for are very large, a number of them reaching a million dollars. As far as the bids have been opened they range from below par to five per cent. premium.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

THE PENNSYLVANIA ELECTION. The State Still in Doubt-The Majority for Either Side will be Small-Both Parties Claim the State.

HARRISBURG, Oct. 14.-From information received here this morning, it is absolutely impossible to determine how the State has gone until the reception of the official returns. Both parties claim small majorities, but unexpected results in heavy northern Union counties render it scarcely possible to overcome the large Democratic gains. In either case it is admitted that the majority will be small, and can only be determined by the official vote. The record. ing of the soldiers' votes is necessarily very slow, they being distributed among various counties, and from the manner in which they name and firm of A. F. Offutt & Co.. is this day dissolved by mutual consent.

Thomas Knowles is fully authorized to settle up the affairs of the late firm. All persons indebted will please make payment to him. Any person baving claims against the firm will please present them to him.

The Proposed Confederation. QUEBEC, Oct. 14.- The inter-colonial conference continues to meet with closed doors.

It is understood that an invitation has been sent to the Pacific colonies to join the confede ration. The discussions yesterday were in reference to the appointment of a head confederate and governors of several provinces. A proposition that these be appointed by the Crown was favorably received.

LOCAL NEWS.

THE LATE CHIEF JUSTICE TANKY .- At noon to-day, pursuant to announcement, the members of the bar assembled in the court room in large numbers, to pay a tribute of respect to the men ory of the late Chief Justice Taney. The meeting was called to order by John E. Norris, Esq., and on his motion Hon. Il Cartter was called to the chair. Judge Cartter, in taking the chair, said: "You have my acknowledgments, gentlemen of the bar, in this compliment paid to the

"The object of the meeting is to do homage to the memory of an eminent jurist according to the time-honored custom of the profession. "You have not placed me here to pronounce the eulogy of the late Chief Justice, but to preside over your deliberations in that direction.

What is your pleasure ?" C. H. Utermehle and John Marbury, Esq., were appointed secretaries. P. R. Fendall, Esq., moved the appointment of a committee to draft suitable resolutions, which was carried; and Messrs. Fendall, W. D. Davidge, J. E. Norris, John Marbury, and W. Redin, were appointed, and retired.

After a short absence the committee returned, and through Mr. Fendall reported suitable Mr. Fendall said in presenting the resolu-

and WEDNESDAY Afternoon, from two to five tions that the committee had endeavored to express the sense of the meeting at the great national bereavement which had befallen them. In any country an event like the one which had called them together would pro-duce a deep sensation, and under any circum-stances the death of an individual holding the Gentlemen's Class on the same exenings from highest judicial office in an empire like this, which is a Government of law, would be calculated to produce a deep feeling in the community, and especially in the profession of which he had been for so many years an ornament. But in the event of the death of a Chief Justice of the United States so distinguished by his personal quali-

part of the riches of our country, this obligation is felt with peculiar sensibility by the bar of this District, which was for such a length of time the scene of his judicial glories and ia

The resolutions were adopted unanimously and then were ordered to be published, after which the meeting adjourned.

The funeral will be under the direction of Mr. Jenkins, undertaker, of Baltimore. The remains have been encased in a handsome mahogany coffin, covered with black cloth and silver mounted, bearing on the breast a silver plate, with the inscription of the name and age of the deceased. The corpse, which, during the day, has been visited by large numbers of the legal profession and personal friends of the deceased, looks very natural.

The corpse will leave here in a special train at 7.30 to morrow morning, in charge of Marshal Lamon, for Frederick, where the remains will be interred. At orney General Bates (whose office will be closed to morrow in respect to the memory of the deceased) will accompany the remains, as will also the Clerk of the Supreme Court, D. W. Middleton, Esq. and other officers, together with a large number of members of the Washington bar and friends of the deceased, and a number of friends and relatives from Baltimore and other places. There will be no ceremony at the house, from whence the corpse will be moved at 645 and leave the depot (as above stated) in a special train at 7.30, arriving at Frederick at 11.30. The train, returning, will leave Frederick at 2.30 p. m., arriving here at 6.20 p. m. to-morrow.

CHARGE OF ABDUCTION .- Last night Deputy

Marshal Borst, of New York, arrived in Wash. ington with a writ for the arrest of Senorita De Lopez, (whose right name is Mrs. Eckhardt,) on charge of abducting a child. A new warrant was issued by Justice Johnson and directed to G. P. Hotchkiss, who was deputized to serve it. The Senorita was arrested and taken before Justice Johnson, when it appeared by the statements made that the child was the adopted son of Geo. W. Seigrist, an actor in a circus in New York. On Thursday night week the defendant abducted the child from the circus, and came to Washington and engaged at the Canterbury, where she appeared with this and other children last Saturday night, performing on the stage. Last night after the performance, she was arrested, with a man named Charles Smith, who was charged with aiding and abetting the abduction. The legal documents confirming the statements were exhibited, and Justice Johnson told her that he could give her an opportunity to employ counsel if she desired it. She admitted that the child was the claimants, and that she took it from the door of the circus in New York and brought it to Washington; but she would like to have counsel.

Justice Johnson held her to bail in $1,000 to appear at 2 o'clock this evening, with the child. for further hearing, Mr. George Lea, proprietor of Canterbury, becoming her security The defendant intends to contest the delivery of the child to its adopted parent, Seigrist, on the ground of systematic cruelty practised by Seigrist to make the child perform feats be youd the capacity of one of its tender ageeight years. The child, when in the office of the justice, evinced great affection for Madame Lopez, and clung to her, screaming, "Don't let them take me back to that man Seigrist."

Deputy Marshal Borst testified that the natural mother of the child is dead, and that the father became so abandoned and reckless that the authorities of Boston, Mass, took up the child as a foundling, and it was adopted by Geo. W. Seigrist, from whom it was abducted by the defendant. PRESSED INTO SERVICE .- Yesterday, as has already been stated, a large number of the hands employed in the Quartermaster's Department were sent from the city to work in clearing up the country in the vicinity of the Manassas Gap railroad, so that the woods should not be used as a cover for guerrillas At the 7th street wharf, after the colored hands had been marched on the boot, work appeared at a stand still. It is absolutely necessary, so great are the demands from the various corrais and stables, that the forage department here should be kept in working trim constantly; and to supply the places of the men sent off, the officers in charge made a raid on all colored men found loitering about in the neighborhood unoccupied. The raiders consisted of the Veteran Reserve Corps, who performed their duty admirably, gathering up within a few squares of the wharves, over one hundred men. Capt. Allen, the efficient Quartermaster there, was thus fully able to keep the work from accumulating on his hands.

CRIMINAL COURT, Judge Olin .- Yesterday John Leonard, indicted for larceny, was tried, but the jury were unable to agree. In the case of Sarah Rody, indicted for larceny, a nolle pros. was entered.

John Gleason, indicted for a rape upon Joanna Horring, a girl about twelve years of age, was tried. This morning, the jury in the case of Gleason returned a sealed verdict of guilty of an assault and battery with intent to commit a rape, and not guilty of committing the rape. Gleason strenuously asserted his innocence. and Judge Olin, after addressing him on the enormity of the crime, sentenced him to the lightest punishment under the law-one year in the penitentiary.

A FEMALE PICKPOCKET. - This morning. Justice Thompson committed Mary McNeill to jail for trial on the charge of picking the pocket of James Brown. Mrs. McNeill met Mr. Brown on 7th street and inquired of him the way to the corner of 10th and E streets. Mr. Brown was going in that direction, and accused walked beside him, and succeeded in taking his wallet from his pocket and took theretrom a $20 Treasury note, two $10 Treasury notes, a $5 gold piece and notes of smaller denomination. As soon as Mr. Brown discovered his loss he called upon officer Greer, and the woman was arrested, and the money was found in her possession, and this morning she was committed as above stated.

Affairs in Georgetown. BUSINESS.—The dealers and merchants do not appear to be doing more than an average share of business, although the streets are much more lively than a week ago. This cheerfulness, we trust, is the token of a lively and profitable business season. THE DRAFT .- The officers of the enrollment office are to-day engaged in serving notices upon the residents of the eighth and ninth district who were so fortunate as to be drawn from the wheel in the late draft and have no yet been exempted nor furnished substitutes The number to be notified is twenty-one in the eighth and fifteen in the ninth districts. The notice requires them to report on Monday next; and the committee of the town having in charge the filling of the quota by volunteers have gone to work to have the entire number Mustered in before the hour to report arrives.

LINCOLN AND JOHNSON FLAG RAISING -Last night the Union Chub elevated its splendid banner on Bridge street, at Congress streetinter-ection. And notwithstanding the chiliness of the air a very large comp by assembled to hear the addresses to be delivered on the occasion. Col. Jas. A. Magruder, president of the club, presided, and the company for convenience sake proceeded to the front of the Gustom House. The president introduced Hon Mr. Whiting, Solicitor of the War Department, who was received with shouts of applause and listened to with attention by the large audience. His speech was principally a defence of the policy of the administration, which was regarded by the intelligent hearers as one of the best delivered in the Instrict during this Campaign. Captain Edgar followed in a brief and spicy address upon the topics commonly discussed by the orators of the contending parties, and the speaking was closed with a brief address by Mr. West, formerly connected with the Washington Chronicle, which elicited much applause.

The meeting may be considered an impromp to affair, as no arrangements had been made for a meeting in the street, and the addresses were all delivered by moonlight The meeting nominated Edward Shoemaker as a candidate for the Common Council, to fill
